SSH / 5/7/56. DM 1017

Office of the

The Secretary of the Samiti may be infor. that the applicant who personally brought the letter dated 7th November 1947 from the Secretary was asked by the Rationing Officer (Establishments) to meet Inspector Madkikar at the Chembur Camp the next day i.e. on 8th November 1947 but the applicant did not turn up.

An application for a ration card is required to be verified regarding the correctness of the information furnished by the applicant, before a ration card is issued to him and if the officer in charge of a camp says that a particular refugee is not residing in the camp under his charge, no ration card can be issued unless correct particulars regarding residence are furnished.
